CRICKET RULEBOOK

GENERAL RULES:

- Tournament Fixtures will be decided based on the number of participating teams and relevant conditions.
- Each team should appear with a perfect squad including substitute players.
- Teams must bring their playing kit, including bats, pads, gloves, and a medical kit.
- The decision of the umpires is final. Any form of misbehaviour, including abuse towards umpires, players or spectators, will result in immediate disqualification from the tournament
- Players must not intentionally obstruct the fielding side. Any such behaviour may result in penalties or dismissal.
- Players are expected to maintain a high standard of conduct throughout the tournament. Any abusive or aggressive behaviour towards others, including players, officials, or spectators, will not be tolerated and could lead to suspension or disqualification.
- The batting order must be submitted to the umpire before the match begins. Once the match starts, no changes can be made to the batting order unless a player is injured.
- Both teams should submit their playing 11, after completion of toss.

CRICKET RULEBOOK

GENERAL RULES:

- If rain or other weather conditions cause delays, the umpire may reduce the number of overs per side in accordance with ICC guidelines, such as the Duckworth-Lewis method.
- If a player is injured, they may be temporarily replaced by a substitute fielder, but the injured player cannot return unless allowed by umpires.
- Players must remain in their team's designated area during the match and are not allowed in the opposing team's designated area without prior approval.
- Any match that finishes in a tie will then head to a super over.
- Coaches and Management are not allowed to players once the match has started. They must remain in the designated areas.
- The tournament will follow ICC rules except DRS.
- NOTE: These rules and guidelines are designed to create a fair, competitive, and enjoyable environment for all participants. It is the responsibility of each team and player to adhere to these rules for the success of the tournament
